

Ms. Lavalée presents as a warm, respectful, teacher who is becoming aware of the varied learning needs of her students. Ms. Lavalée is calm, relaxed and predictable. She shows care for all students. Her students work in an environment which is safe for children to take learning risks when answering questions or engaging in group or written responses. She has developed a rapport with her students. Ms. Lavalée dresses professionally, greets students with respect and speaks in a professional manner. Her daily behavior models courtesy and integrity. She is conscientious of the confidentiality of student information. She arrives at the school early and stays late.