

Knowledge of student growth and development

Ms. Lavalley is beginning to recognize her students' developmental levels and continues to develop the ability to construct age appropriate lessons. She provides adaptations as needed for students. Her use of the overhead projector, manipulatives and white boards has enhanced and supported teaching and learning.